Fifty-seventh session
Agenda item 86 (d)
High-level dialogue on strengthening international economic cooperation for development through partnership

High-level dialogue on financing for development

Engagement with regional and international intergovernmental organizations

Engagement with civil society and business sector entities

Note by the Secretariat

1. The present conference room paper provides basic information on regional and international intergovernmental organizations, non-governmental organizations and business-sector entities that applied for special accreditation to the high-level dialogue on financing for development, to be held on 29 and 30 October 2003 and to be preceded, on 28 October 2003, by hearings of civil society and the business sector. In accordance with the provisions of the paper dated 7 May 2003 prepared by the President of the fifty-seventh session of the General Assembly on the detailed organization of the high-level dialogue, such special accreditation is required for those relevant stakeholders that do not have, as appropriate, observer status to the General Assembly or consultative status to the Economic and Social Council, or were not accredited to the International Conference on Financing for Development.

2. Pursuant to the provisions of section 5 of the aforementioned paper, the President of the General Assembly circulated, under cover of a letter of 3 September 2003 addressed to permanent representatives of all Member States to the United Nations, a list of regional and international intergovernmental organizations seeking accreditation to the high-level dialogue (see annex I).

3. Further to the provisions of section 6 of the same paper, the President of the General Assembly addressed, on 27 August 2003, a letter to all permanent representatives to the United Nations, enclosing lists of non-governmental organizations and business-sector entities applying for accreditation to the high-level dialogue and the preceding hearings (see annexes II and III).
